

Special Holiday Dinner Night for N.H. Masons and Family members

Brethren,

Every December the Strawbery Banke Museum, in Portsmouth holds, its annual Candlelight Stroll for six evenings in December. The museum's William Pitt Tavern hosts dinners during the stroll on the Tavern's First Floor [prepared by the Fezziwig's Food and Fountain of Pickwick's Mercantile]. The tavern is fully decorated for the holiday season and the staff is in "full colonial dress" as are the musicians that perform during the dinner.

"Fezziwig's Food & Fountain prepares a delectable, four course colonial fare fit for only the most joyous of occasions. Vegetarian & children's menus are also available! The heartwarming sound of classical guitar, violins and cheerful Christmas carols fill the rooms of this historic tavern. Be whisked back in time for a night of merry-making!"

Tickets for this event are extremely difficult to come by, whereas they usually sell-out immediately after going on sale.

By special arrangement The Scottish Rite Valley of Portsmouth-Dover, has been able to plan with Pickwick's an exclusive dinner evening, separate from the Candlelight Stroll nights, just for N.H. masons and their families on the evening of Thursday, December 6, 2018. The "Holiday Dinner Night experience" will be exactly the same as that that takes place during the evenings of Candlelight Stroll. To add to the evening, the Masonic Museum at the William Pitt Tavern [second and third floor] will be open for all dinner guests to tour at their leisure.

The cost is $75.00 per person for a four course meal including mulled wine and cider. This event will be limited to a maximum of 120 people for the evening (3 sittings of 40 people each). Ticket Reservations are an absolute must: no tickets will be sold "at the door."

Please send your reservations and payment to: Valley of Portsmouth Dover S.R., mail to: Sec. Jeff M. Brown, PO Box 1992, Seabrook, NH 03874-1992. Again, once we have 120 paid reservations (first-come-first-served), this offer is closed. If you have ever wanted to attend this dinner event N.H. Magazine awarded the "Best Restaurant Adventure of 2018" this may be the best opportunity you will ever get to do so!
